Welcome Note Address by Dr. L.V. Krishna Rao, Coordinator, IQAC:

The one-day workshop on the NAAC Revised Framework, organized by our college's Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), commenced with a warm welcome note by Dr. L.V. Krishna Rao, the Coordinator of IQAC. In his address, Dr. Rao highlighted the objective of the workshop, emphasizing the importance of understanding and implementing the new NAAC guidelines for accreditation.

Principal's Address by Dr. S. Madhavi:

Dr. S. Madhavi, the Principal of our college, addressed the participants and stressed the significance of achieving NAAC Accreditation by 2022. She underlined the importance of aligning our institution with the new NAAC guidelines to ensure continuous improvement and excellence in higher education.

Workshop Sessions:

The workshop was divided into two insightful sessions, both led by the experienced resource person, Mr. M. Vincent Paul.

Session 1: Building Awareness and Critical Insights into NAAC Criteria:

Mr. Vincent Paul provided a comprehensive overview of the seven criteria outlined by NAAC. He delved into each criterion, explaining the nuances and expectations set forth by the accreditation body. Participants gained a deep understanding of the assessment parameters and the significance of meeting the criteria for accreditation.

Session 2: Guidance on SSR Preparation, DVV Process, and Best Practices:

In the second session, Mr. Vincent Paul guided participants in the preparation of the Self Study Report (SSR), a crucial component of the accreditation process. He elucidated the Data Validation and Verification (DVV) process, offering insights into the meticulous steps involved in ensuring data accuracy and reliability. Moreover, Mr. Paul shared some of the best practices observed in successful institutions and suggested measures for overall quality enhancement, fostering institutional growth.
