OUTCOME:

63 girl students from all the groups attended this program.

They were made aware of the following

Eve Teasing:

First off, eve-teasing is not a crime that can be resolved outside of court. Additionally, because it is a cognisable offence, the police may detain the suspect without a warrant and launch an inquiry without a judge's approval.

Second, in every circumstance, the police must file a FIR. One may submit a Section 156(3) application and a private complaint under Section 200 of the CrPC before the Magistrate if they refuse to register a FIR.

Thirdly, a molestation case where the cause of action has occurred is what needs to be reported to the police in the FIR.

Fourth, beginning on the event date, there is a three-year deadline for filing a FIR under section 468 (2)(c) of the CrPC.

Cyber Crime:

Keep software and operating system updated.

Use anti-virus software and keep it updated.

Use strong passwords.

Do not click on links in spam emails or untrusted websites.

Do not give out personal information unless secure.
