OUTCOME:

This program could educate them about laws pertaining to gender equality, sexual harassment, consent, and domestic violence. By understanding their rights and the laws that protect them, college girls can be empowered to take action when necessary and make informed decisions.

The program could provide college girls with information on recognizing signs of abusive behavior and ways to seek help. By learning about personal safety, self-defense techniques, and available resources, they will be better equipped to protect themselves and their peers from harm.
